BEARD...

Beards are back. But not just any beards. It's a very particular brand of the beast that's making its mark

PHOTOGRAPHER FANI PAUL

KEEPING IT CLOSE

Cast your mind back to the Hermès show (have a scratchy chin moment while you think about it) and you may recall spotting a beard to behold. It's neat; it's fairly closely trimmed (but not so uniform that you look uptight); and it's perfectly graded in its downwards direction (this avoids the chin-strap effect – always a good thing). Even better if you team it with wavy hair (à la 3.1 Phillip Lim show). You know the kind... looks natural, but is rather well considered. Rather like your good self.
