LILSON BAILIN BATZ
 STYLING BY JOSUE O. PHOTOGRAPHY
 INT. REP. MAXX MANAGEMENT/NTA TALENT

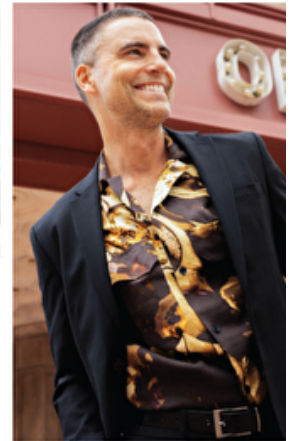

So Scottsdale! November '22

After small parts, including play-murder victim on Law & Order, Egglesfield got his first major break he landed the role of the iconic Kane's son Josh Madden on All My Children in 2005.
 "In my time as Josh, the character got to crash an airplane, steal $20 n and even take his sister's girlfriend ge," Egglesfield says. "I even haunted town's fictional town of Pine Valley as a . But none of that compared to what happening behind the scenes." Six months into his time on the soap , Egglesfield was diagnosed with tes-cancer. Despite aggressive treat-and a period where he was canee, Egglesfield was diagnosed with a second time a year later requiring onal surgery.
 "While I never wish what I went through on anyone, that time in my life forced me to develop patience and practice having hope in the face of what would have been infinite sorrow," Egglesfield says.

 "That hope got me through multiple surgeries and years of scans, X-rays, radiation, and seemingly endless testing. It also gave me the courage to strike out again, both to seek more complex roles and to spread my volunteer wings by giving back to the medical community and those dealing with diagnosis like mine."
 After departing All My Children in 2009, Egglesfield became a staple on television and in films (watch him in Something Borrowed opposite Kate Hudson and Backtrace alongside Sylvester Stallone, both available on Netflix now) as well as in the philanthropic community, notably with St. Jude's Children's Hospital, until he lost his father in 2016.
