YASMIN PULLS IT O

Far left: coat and sandals from a selection by Dolce & Gabbana. Left: Yasmin drives, Simon gives directions. Below: dress (£39.99) by Warehouse. Children's dresses to order by Tecca. Hair clips (£9.99 each) by Johnny Loves Rosie. Flip flops (around £20) by Louise Jackson. Bags (from £2.50) by Emma Bernhardt

It's Jamaica, it's my holiday, they're my children who are ting hot, sweaty and fracti about who wears what dress for shoot, and who's going to twist wh ankle in whichever pair of high h Amber is six, Saffron's four, mercifully Tallulah – who is almo year old – thinks that shoes are for chewing. Simon's good at h days. He floats and reads endle He also makes a mean Dark Stormy, thereby atoning for any

Ten years. Where do I st When Nicola (Jeal) faxed me, as me to be in the anniversary is my reply was delayed – more cause I was in a state of shock because of my usual phone pho In one way so much has happe yet at the same time so little changed. Recently I've been pan ing at the thought of being trap in a never-ending cycle of super kets, nappies and school runs. when I think back over the pa years, I realise that, honestly, if thing more had happened, I pr bly would be institutionalised now. When you're 18, there do seem to be a life after 25, and before you know it you're 30. I'm looking forward to the ne years, and doing all the thin didn't have time for in the past

I've never looked back and amazed at the life I've led. Fa into the fashion business see perfectly natural. I must expected something like this to pen. It's difficult to explain to s one who has no desire to perfo be anyone else. My main motiv was to travel, and experien much of everything as I pos could. Being married at 21 and ing three kids by the age of 3 certainly not in the game pl there was one).

I was ready to live life to th ready for anything. I was not for love. How could it happ someone so stubborn, so fear independent? The one thing I suppose shocked the sideways suddenly it was all out of my Only now that I have three kid look back, like most women
